MAHISRA, 16 SEPTEMBER

A webinar was organised by the Eco-Club of Siliguri's Surya Sen Mahavidyalaya on 'Ozone For Life: 35 Years of Ozone Layer Protection' on the occasion of World Ozone Day today. College officials said that the programme aimed at speeding awareness on the protection of the Ozone layer, which is of grave importance for human existence.

The programme was introduced by Pallabi Sarkar, a member of Eco-club, while it was inaugurated with a welcome speech by the Principal of Surya Sen Mahavidyalaya, Dr Parashu Kumar Mishra. A speech from Dr. Anjali Baid, the IQAC coordinator, and Ranjit Kumar Barman, the convener of Eco-club, followed.

Two eminent speakers - Dr. Raja Routh, Assistant Teacher and Secretary of the Jalpaiguri Science and Nature Club, and Himika Mukhopadhyay, Assistant Professor of Geography, Kalipada Ghosh Tarai Mahavidyalaya, were invited for the session.

Dr Routh gave a detailed lecture on Ozone gas through a PowerPoint presentation and talked in depth on the importance of the Ozone layer and its changing and degrading position over the last few decades. On the other hand, Ms Mukhopadhy talked in detail about how to reduce plastic use in order to help retain the Ozone layer intact and what are the effective ways to do so, through a PowerPoint presentation, a college official said.

The programme ended with a vote of thanks by Pallabi Sarkar, co-member of the Eco Club.

More than 200 participants from different parts of the country participated in the webinar. The entire session was very helpful for the students as they got to know about the existence and importance of the Ozone layer and how crucial it is to protect this layer for humanity's own sake, the official added.
